Plans Ahead on: -

Nuttall

What To Do	Date 1		Dat
DITTEL CONTRACTOR	Done #	What To Do	Dor
Search HBUM	7-1-90
Nuttall, David W., and Family, 869 Datfall, Elmira A. Meeks, 970	' "
Mutall, Hannah Ford 970	1/
Nuttall, John H., and Family, 969 Nuttall, Joseph B. and Family, 970
Nuttall, Elmra A. Meeks, 970 Nuttall, George, 918-919 Nuttall, Hannah Ford, 970 Nuttall, John H., and Family, 969 Nuttall, Joseph B., and Family, 970 Nuttall, Juliet Wall, 974 Nuttall, Laura N. Gardner, 969 Nuttall, Lily Fraser, 969 Nuttall, Lily Fraser, 969 Nuttall, Laura I. Karby, 975	1/
Nuttall, Lily Fraser, 969 Nuttall, Louise I, Kerby, 975	"	Question:
Nuttall, Louise J. Kerby, 975 Nuttall, Margaret G. Greer, 972 Nuttall, Martha Fenn, 972 Nuttall, Martha Fenn, 970 Nuttall, Richard J., 970
Nuttall, Mary A. Jones, 970 Nuttall, Richard L. 970		Which Geo	,
Nuttall, William A., and Family, 916, 972	1,	Nuttall
Nuttall, William E., and Family, 911,	1/	Ran the
Nuttall, William G., and Family, 974 Nuttall, William H., 28	"//	Greamery	-
Search PPMU	"	in	1
	7-2-90	0.1 20.1
NUTTALL, LEONARD JOHN	//	Wallsburg
	//	whowas
3 Search LDS Brogr. Engyc. Nuttall, Leonard John, Vol. 1:355*. Nuttall, Wm. E., Vol. 4:661.	7-3-90	his wife	a Ì
Nuttall, Wm. E., Vol. 4:661.		nes age
A Search Heber Tel Directory	-0-7-3-90
5 Search Lion's Directory	-0-7-3-90
/			7.1
		SEASE PROPERTY AND LOCATION OF THE PROPERTY A
		OR. R. R. GREEN 375 E. 2ND ST. WO. HEBER CITY, UTAH	, B.
		HEBER CITY, UTAH	P 11

JAMES HENRY ADAMS AND LAURA ALICE NUTTALL

James Henry Adams was born December 11, 1869, at Ogden, Utah, a son of James Adams and Ellen Cummingham. He was married in 1891 to Laura Alice Nuttall, who was born 29 June 1873, at Wallsburg, Utah, a daughter of William Ephraim Nuttall and Rosamond Watson. Laura Alice died April 29, 1928, and James Henry died October 16, 1940. Both are buried at Ogden.

Their children are: William, James Robert, Leonard Vernon, Ida Loretta, Wilford E., Claude LeRoy, Joseph Farra, Richard Alvin, Thomas LaVirl, Rosamond Ellen, Youvona Anna.

DAVID WATSON NUTTALL AND LILLIE FRASER

David Watson Nuttall was born May 14, 1869, at Provo, Utah, son of William Ephraim and Rosamond Watson Nuttall. He died April 12, 1956, at Provo, Utah. He married Lillie Elizabeth Fraser, who was born in London, England, of Scotch ancestry, and came with her beautiful and kindly mother. Annie McDonald Fraser, to make her home in Wallsburg on November 20, 1895. Her father was Thomas Fraser. She was born December 18, 1872, in London, and died December 18, 1956, in Provo.

David grew up under the influence of

969

14.

He

was an-

and

ser,

No-

nas

fine people, attended the little pioneer school where he learned to enjoy reading, writing, and arithmetic. Since always young folks had to help with all the work of pioneering a new place, too, David did his share taking care of the farm and sawmill for many years.

After David and Lillie Fraser were married they lived in a tiny one-room cabin, but soon moved into two rooms. Lillie was an excellent cook and a very fastidious house-keeper. They were both very hospitable and friendly people. He was a hard worker and during the winters hauled wood to keep the home fires burning. They both were active in the Church.

David was custodian of the Church for 17 years, under Bishop George Gardener, keeping it clean for all the many functions. He was also custodian at the school many years. After retiring and moving to Provo, he still couldn't be idle, so spent much time picking fruit and doing other types of work. Sometimes, if the farmer did not feel that he could pay wages, David would work for fruit or vegetables they needed, or often for nothing, for he just had to be busy at some useful task.

They had two sons: Floyd and Thomas Leland.

DAVID. WATSON NUTTALL

969

fine people, attended the little pioneer school where he learned to enjoy reading, writing, and arithmetic. Since always young folks had to help with all the work of pioneering a new place, too, David did his share taking care of the farm and sawmill for many years.

After David and Lillie Fraser were married they lived in a tiny one-room cabin, but soon moved into two rooms. Lillie was an excellent cook and a very fastidious house-keeper. They were both very hospitable and friendly people. He was a hard worker and during the winters hauled wood to keep the home fires burning. They both were active in the Church.

David was custodian of the Church for 17 years, under Bishop George Gardener, keeping it clean for all the many functions. He was also custodian at the school many years. After retiring and moving to Provo, he still couldn't be idle, so spent much time picking fruit and doing other types of work. Sometimes, if the farmer did not feel that he could pay wages, David would work for fruit or vegetables they needed, or often for nothing, for he just had to be busy at some useful task.

They had two sons: Floyd and Thomas Leland.

fine people, attended the little pioneer school where he learned to enjoy reading, writing, and arithmetic. Since always young folks had to help with all the work of pioneering a new place, too, David did his share taking care of the farm and sawmill for many years.

After David and Lillie Fraser were married they lived in a tiny one-room cabin, but soon moved into two rooms. Lillie was an excellent cook and a very fastidious house-keeper. They were both very hospitable and friendly people. He was a hard worker and during the winters hauled wood to keep the home fires burning. They both were active in the Church

David was custodian of the Church for 17 years, under Bishop George Gardener, keeping it clean for all the many functions. He was also custodian at the school many years. After retiring and moving to Provo, he still couldn't be idle, so spent much time picking fruit and doing other types of work. Sometimes, if the farmer did not feel that he could pay wages, David would work for fruit or vegetables they needed, or often for nothing, for he just had to be busy at some useful task.

They had two sons: Floyd and Thom s Leland. 969

DAVID WATSON NUTTALL AND LILLIE FRASER

David Watson Nutrail was born May 14, 1869, at Provo, Utah, son of William Ephraim and Rosamond Walson Nutrall. He died April 12, 1956, at Provo, Utah, He married Eillie Elizabeth Frascr, who was lorn in London, England, of Scotch ancestry, and came with her heautiful and kindly mother. Annie McDonald Frascr, to make her home in Wallsburg on Nowember 20, 1895. Her father was Thomps Frascr. She was born December 18, 1872, in London, and died December 18, 1956, in Provo.

David grew up under the influence of

fine people, attended the little pioneer school where he learned to enjoy reading, writing, and arithmetic. Since always young folks had to help with all the work of pioneering a new place, too David did his share taking cure of the farm and some of the farm an cure of the farm and sawmill for many years.

After David and Lillie Fraser were married they lived in a tiny one-room cabin. but excellent cook and a very fastidious house-excellent cook and a very fastidious house-friendly people. He was a hard worker and during the winters hauled wood to keep the home fires burning. They both were active in the Church.

David was custodian of the Church for keeping it clean for all the many functions. He was also custodian at the school many years. After retiring and moving to Provo, picking fruit and doing other types of works Sometimes, if the farmer did not feel that fruit or vegetables they needed, or often for nothing, for he just had to be busy at some useful task.

They had two sons: Floyd and Thomas Leland, 94.9

DAVID WATSON NUTTALL AND LILLIE FRASER

David Watson Nuttall was born May 14, 1869, at Provo, Utah, son of William Ephraim and Rosamond Watson Nuttall. He died April 12, 1956, at Provo, Utah. He married Lillie Elizabeth Fraser, who was born in London, England, of Scotch ancestry, and came with her beautiful and kindly mother, Annie McDonald Fraser, to make her home in Wallsburg on November 20, 1895. Her father was Thomas Fraser. She was born December 18, 1872, in London, and died December 18, 1956, in Provo.

David grew up under the influence of 969

169

fine people, attended the little pioneer school where he learned to enjoy reading, writing, and arithmetic. Since always young folks had to help with all the work of pioneering a new place, too, David did his share taking care of the farm and sawmill for many years.

After David and Lillie Fraser were married they lived in a tiny one-room cabin, but soon moved into two rooms. Lillie was an excellent cook and a very fastidious house-keeper. They were both very hospitable and friendly people. He was a hard worker and during the winters hauled wood to keep the home fires burning. They both were active in the Church.

David was custodian of the Church for 17 years, under Bishop George Gardener, keeping it clean for all the many functions. He was also custodian at the school many years. After retiring and moving to Provo, he still couldn't be idle, so spent much time picking fruit and doing other types of work. Sometimes, if the farmer did not feel that he could pay wages, David would work for fruit or vegetables they needed, or often for nothing, for he just had to be busy at some useful task.

They had two sons: Floyd and Thomas Leland. 969

DAVID WATSON NUTTALL AND LILLIE FRASER

David Watson Nuttall was born May 14, 1869, at Provo, Utah, son of William Ephraim and Rosamond Watson Nuttall. He died April 12, 1956, at Provo, Utah. He married Lillie Elizabeth Fraser, who was born in London, England, of Scotch ancestry, and came with her beautiful and kindly mother, Annie McDonald Fraser, to make her home in Wallsburg on November 20, 1895. Her father was Thomas Fraser. She was born December 18, 1872, in London, and died December 18, 1956, in Provo.

David grew up under the influence of

fine people, attended the little pioneer school where he learned to enjoy reading, writing, and arithmetic. Since always young folks had to help with all the work of pioneering a new place, too, David did his share taking care of the farm and sawmill for many years.

After David and Lillie Fraser were married they lived in a tiny one-room cabin, but soon moved into two rooms. Lillie was an excellent cook and a very fastidious housekeeper. They were both very hospitable and friendly people. He was a hard worker and during the winters hauled wood to keep the home fires burning. They both were active in the Church.

David was custodian of the Church for 17 years, under Bishop George Gardener, keeping it clean for all the many functions. He was also custodian at the school many years. After retiring and moving to Provo, he still couldn't be idle, so spent much time picking fruit and doing other types of work. Sometimes, if the farmer did not feel that he could pay wages, David would work for fruit or vegetables they needed, or often for nothing, for he just had to be busy at some useful task.

They had two sons: Floyd and Thomas Leland.

DAVID WATSON NUTTALL AND LILLIE FRASER

1869, at Provo, Utah, son of William Ephraim and Rosamond Watson Nuttall. He died April 12, 1956, at Provo, Utah. He to make her home in Wallsburg on November 20, 1895. Her father was Thomas Fraser. She was born December 18, 1872, in London, and died December 18, 1956, married Lillie Elizabeth Fraser, who was cestry, and came with her beautiful and kindly mother, Annie McDonald Fraser, born in London, England, of Scotch an-David Watson Nuttall was born May 14,

David grew up under the influence of in Provo.

and arithmetic. Since always young folks had to help with all the work of pioneering a new place, too, David did his share taking soon moved into two rooms. Lillie was an during the winters hauled wood to keep the home fires burning. They both were active care of the farm and sawmill for many years. After David and Lillie Fraser were married they lived in a tiny one-room cabin, but excellent cook and a very fastidious housekeeper. They were both very hospitable and friendly people. He was a hard worker and fine people, attended the little pioneer school where he learned to enjoy reading, writing,

David was custodian of the Church for 17 years, under Bishop George Gardener, keeping it clean for all the many functions. He was also custodian at the school many he still couldn't be idle, so spent much time Sometimes, if the farmer did not feel that he could pay wages, David would work for fruit or vegetables they needed, or often for nothing, for he just had to be busy at years. After retiring and moving to Provo, picking fruit and doing other types of work. some useful task. in the Church.

They had two sons: Floyd and Thomas Leland.

